

June 7, 2009

Carew teams up to guarantee training

Norwood – Sales training firm Carew International has team up with a talent management firm to guarantee the results of its training and assessment programs. Through its new alliance with Dayton, Ohio-based HT Chally Group, Carew International offers its Sales Performance Guarantee, which guarantees clients specific year-to-year sales increases, provided they utilize the firm's talent assessment and training programs.

"Carew's sales Performance Guarantee program offers all of the benefits of Carew incomparable training and Chally's world-class assessment with none of the risk," says Carew CEO Jeff Seeley.

The program includes sales and sales management training, predictive assessment and talent audit. Target sales increases are identified and agreed upon before a client begins a program

Carew International specializes in programs to support companywide initiatives in sales, sales leadership, negotiations and customer service improvement.

Information: 513-621-0229 or www.carew.com